A Win-Win Partnership

We invite you to join dozens of satisfied Enterasys customers who have publicly announced how Enterasys is helping their organizations improve security and ensure the reliability and integrity of IT services for business-critical data communications. Customers large and small from every industry vertical have gone on record with us in news releases. That speaks volumes about how satisfied our customers are with Enterasys hardware, software and professional services.

When you help promote Enterasys by participating in a news release that is issued over a newswire service, not only does your organization or business receive free publicity, but you or one representative from your company will be entitled to attend a select Enterasys technical training session for FREE, a $2,000 value! Or, you can receive a FREE one-day, on-site Network Security Assessment performed by an Enterasys solution engineer. It's your choice.

In addition to the free training or on-site assessment, you'll also receive a $100 Visa Gift Card to personally thank you for your participation in our news release program.

Your Role

All we ask is 45 minutes of your time to participate in a content-gathering telephone call that Enterasys will schedule.

Our Role

After the content interview, we will draft the news release and forward it to you within two weeks for your full review and approval.

We're more than happy to incorporate any edits we receive from you or your PR department. We can work with you directly on the approval process—or if you prefer, we can work with your PR department directly to secure all necessary approvals.

Once you and your company sign off on the news release, we will schedule an announcement date and issue it over a newswire service on behalf of Enterasys and your organization.

Thank you for your participation and support!
